

Wealth of Nations

AI-Generated Global Insights Report

Average Global GDP per Capita Over Time

Generated on: 2025-11-10 13:10

Executive Summary

Between 2010 and 2020, global prosperity indicators improved across regions. The data illustrates how GDP growth, healthcare investment, and longevity are tightly linked. Regions like Europe demonstrate the synergy between wealth and wellness, while emerging economies continue to make notable strides in reducing child mortality. This AI-driven analysis visualizes progress across 2420 country-year records.

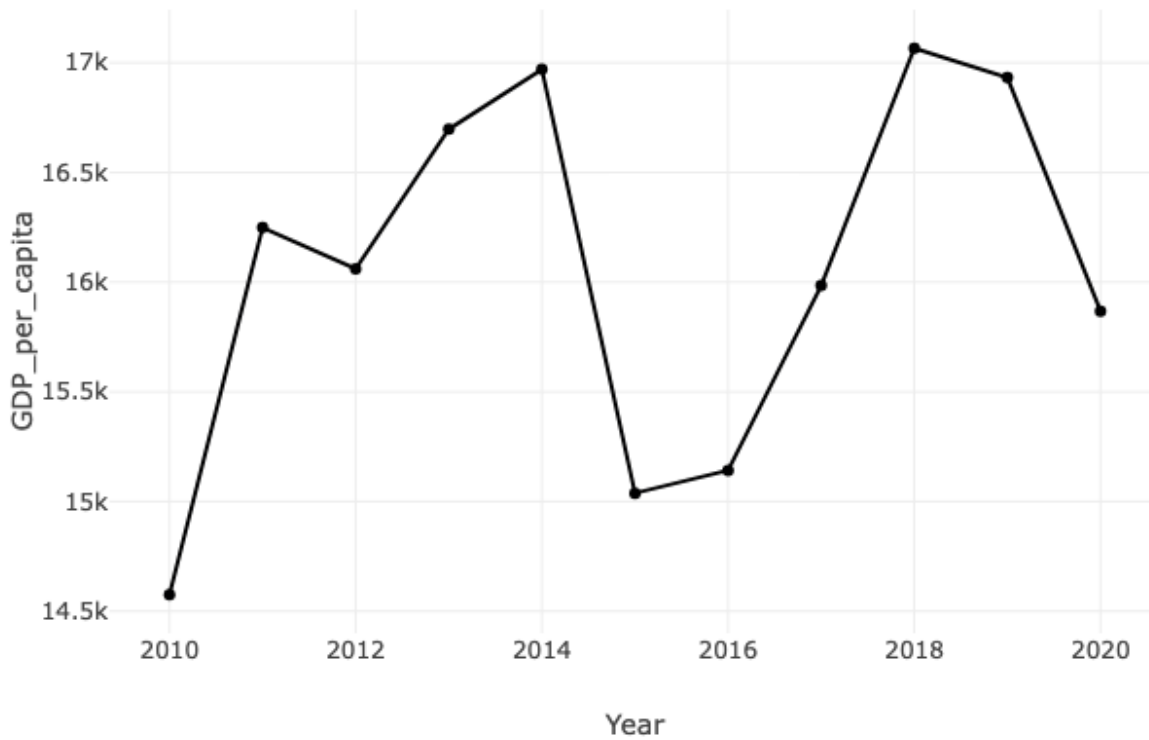

Key Insights

- Global GDP per capita grew 8.87% from 2010 to 2020.
- Europe leads in wealth; Africa lags behind.
- Europe shows the highest life expectancy.
- Europe spends most per person on health.
- Prosperity, longevity, and healthcare investment move hand in hand.

Visual Charts

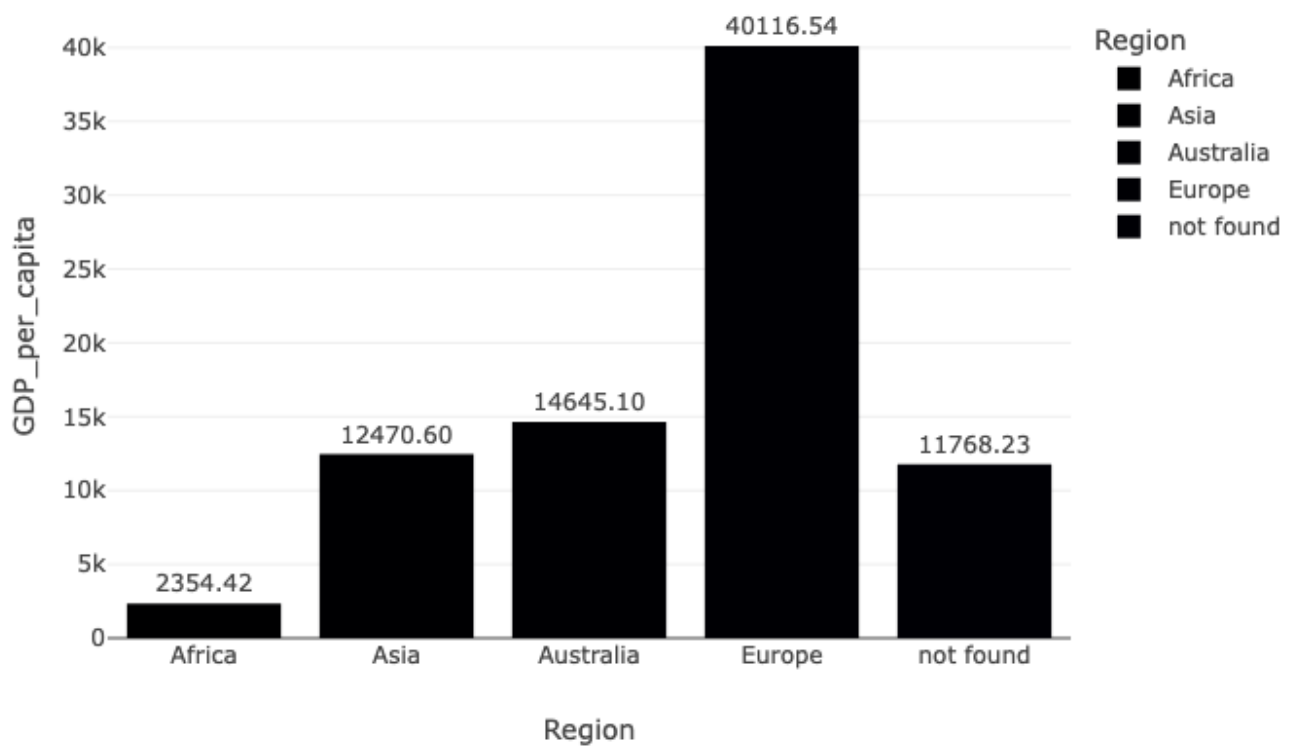

Global GDP per Capita Trend

Average Global GDP per Capita Over Time

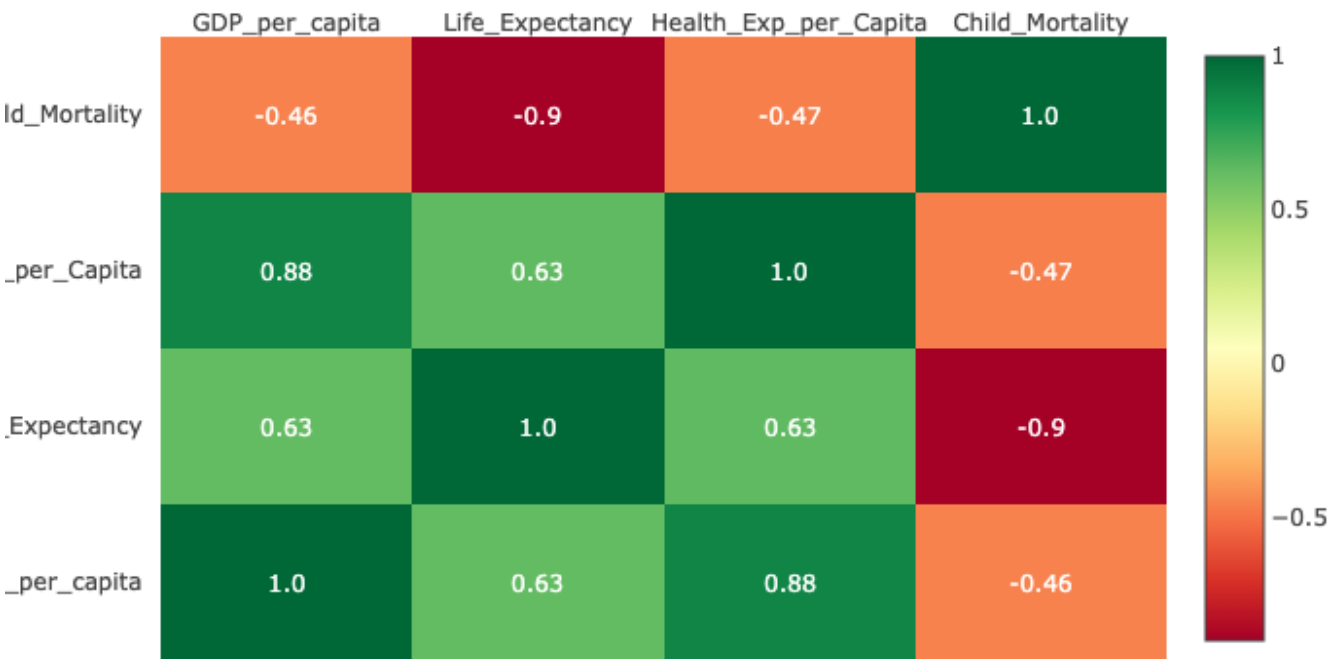

Regional GDP per Capita (2020)

Regional GDP per Capita (2020)

Correlation Heatmap of Key Indicators

Correlation Heatmap of Key Indicators

Top 5 Countries by GDP per Capita

Country	GDP_per_capita	Life_Expectancy	Health_Exp_per_Capita	Child_Mortality
Monaco	176891.89	86.09	7579.64	3.00
Liechtenstein	164671.09	81.66	nan	nan
Luxembourg	116860.03	82.14	6785.86	2.50
Ireland	86622.51	82.46	6098.27	3.50
Switzerland	85897.78	83.00	10348.35	4.00